remembered

We are leaving on Friday! It has been a busy time getting ready. We spoke at several churches and small groups in Alabama and Indiana. In between we were busy packing. It meant so much to have people pray over us and especially Samuel. Our church also prayed for us and sent us out. After that we were thankful to have the chance to vacation with both of our families. It was hard to say goodbyes but we had a good time.

Samuel (3 months) is already well-traveled. He has been to Indiana, Alabama, Michigan, West Virginia, Georgia, Florida, and Tennessee. He did okay driving. We pray that he does well on the flights to Portugal and Guinea-Bissau. We are also praying that he transitions well to life in Guinea-Bissau.

Praises:

- That Samuel's hearing is good enough that we just need to watch to see if he keeps responding to noise. We plan to go to Portugal when he's one to get his hearing checked again.
- Thank you for your generosity! We have the funds to buy a car!
- For a good time with family.
- That Travis's mom is able to go with us to Guinea-Bissau for a couple weeks.

Prayer Requests:

- That we can finish packing with minimal stress.
- That the guy who is supposed to drill the well will be able to do it soon. It is best to do it at the end of the dry season. Rainy season has started but we are still waiting for him to come.
- For safe travels: We fly out of Chicago, have an 18-hour layover in Portugal, and then fly to Bissau. We'll stay in Bissau a couple days before the 3-hour drive to Quebo.
- That we can find a reliable car.
- For Samuel's health both physical and mental as he transitions.
- For us as we transition back to life in Guinea-Bissau with a baby.
