

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

2016 Highlights:

February: Travis proposed and Sarah said yes!

March: We traveled to Guinea-Bissau excited to make plans for our future together.

June: Sarah returned to the US and led a Bible Storying training in North Carolina.

July: Travis purchased land for our house as well as for the project where we hope to have a clinic, school, and training grounds for agriculture.

August: Travis finalized the process of making Hope Remembered a non-government organization in Guinea-Bissau called Esperansa Confirmada.

October: We got married! (The above picture is from our honeymoon in Costa Rica.)

November: Sarah helped with a Bible Storying training for refugee pastors in Clarkston, GA. We celebrated Thanksgiving with both families.

December: We moved out of the place where we were staying. We celebrated Christ's birth with both families.

We are currently "homeless" as we prepare to move overseas but will be traveling quite a bit. We purchased our tickets and head out on March 8th! In the meantime we are visiting partners and sharing about our ministry. We are so blessed by many offers of places to stay and are reminded that our true home is in heaven. I (Sarah) have also been thinking of how Jesus left His home to serve and save us. My heart aches to think of the many people who don't know of the perfect home Christ has prepared for us. We are anxious to go where God has called us to share the Good News. The people in the village where we'll live don't understand the importance of Christ's birth.

"How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in Him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent?"

~Romans 10:14-15a

We've been humbled by your generosity and are close to being fully funded! We also have about 80% of the funds we need to build and furnish our house. Once we move we'll be busy building our house and getting to know the people. Travis will work on agriculture and training some of the Guineans and Sarah recently agreed to help in a Bible storying project for the Fula language group.
